BOARD PRESIDENT REPORT

Lupe Mejia expressed her thanks for entrusting her to help lead the Library into the next chapter, including the Building Program, the Strategic Plan review, and renovations at the circulation desk. Lupe explained that her background is health care and education. As President, she will be using what she has found successful in her organizational leadership arenas. She would like to start out with the process of appreciative inquiry, which is looking at what is going well and not as problem focused, taking an idealistic and positive approach to change. Lupe had an article sent out the Board that was about appreciative inquiry specific to libraries. She plans to bring questions to contemplate and help the Board to keep thinking positively as they move forward.

Lupe appointed Barbara Bennett as the liaison to the Friends of the Library. She asked if anyone has the interest and capacity to serve as liaison to the Foundation Board. It was agreed that the Board will share responsibility making sure they are following the Open Meetings Act.
